

The Rolling Rivers help to teach watershed health and erosion control. These great tools are shown all over the state at fairs, water festivals and school functions.

The water trailers enable the teaching of the function of a river system and how drought affects everyone. This hands-on tool allows us to stress conservation, riparian restoration, & river health.

New Mexico Association Of Conservation Districts

Debbie Hughes
Executive Director
163 Trail Canyon Rd
Carlsbad, NM 88220
Contact Debbie at 575-981-2400 cell: 575-361-1413
conserve@hughes.net

Or Mary Lou Ballard 575-785-2306
marylouballard@hughes.net

Rolling Rivers

Great Tools in Teaching How Watersheds
Are Affected by Water

ROLLING RIVERS WATER TRAILERS

ROLLING RIVERS

The trailers are available for your use by scheduling with the following folks:

Location	District	Contact / Phone
Alamogordo	Otero	Vicky Milne 575-437-3100
Albuquerque	Ciudad	Jennifer Moss 505-761-5446
Aztec	San Juan	Melissa May 505-334-3090 x5
Carlsbad	Carlsbad	Judy Bock 575-628-1532
Carrizozo	Carrizozo	Karyn Hazen 575-648-2941 x101
Cuba	Cuba	Brian Velarde 575-289-0281
Estancia	East Torrance	Cheri Lujan 505-384-2272 x103
Espanola	E Rio Arriba	Marcos Valdez 505-753-0477 x5
Las Vegas	Tierra y Montes	Carla Garduno 505-425-9088
Lovington	Lea	Shay Hager 575-396-0707
Silver City	Grant	Rebecca Benavidez 575-388-1569
Socorro	Socorro	Nyleen Troxel-Stowe 575-838-0078

The Rolling Rivers water trailers were purchased with our Bureau of Reclamation partner grants. NRCS stepped up with funding for a few Rolling Rivers. They are used all over New Mexico and in other states.

Our students and school teachers love the
Rolling Rivers
Presentations!